

Ari Takata Vasquez

M 808.383.0707

@AriMadeArt

arimadeart@gmail.com

ari-made.com/arimadeart

Profile	My passion for cities and ‘place-based’ interventions drive my practice. As an artist and creative I’m able to blend my experience in architecture and urban design to create beautiful work intended to delight and give space a sense of identity.
Murals	San Francisco General Hospital Foundation “Hearts in SF” — 5’x5’x4’ San Francisco, California February 2020 The Port Workspaces Mural — 12’x14’ Oakland, California January 2020 Cafe Encina - “Oak” — 20’x14’ Oakland, California October 2019 Garden House “Garden” — 10’x12’ Oakland, California February 2019 Private Residence - “Poppies” — 8’x10’ Oakland, California January 2019
Shows	VSCO Art As Activism, 2018 Alena Museum Rock Paper Scissors Sculpture Show, 2018 Warehouse 416 PorArts Holiday Show, 2017 ProArts Gallery HeART Fundraiser Show, 2017 Classic Cars West Gallery Grow a Pair Group Show, 2016 Incline Gallery
Education	University of California Berkeley – Masters in City Planning University of San Francisco- Bachelors in Architecture
Skills	Trained in architecture and urban design, I’m able to blend creative concepts with the precision and craftsmanship required to execute large scale and complex pieces. Currently I work on large hand painted murals, mixed-media paintings, and original illustrations.